Presiding Justice Announces Recipients of the Thirteenth Annual Milton Mollen Commitment to Excellence Award

BROOKLYN, NEW YORK – Presiding Justice Hector D. LaSalle of the Supreme Court, Appellate Division, Second Judicial Department, today announced the recipients of the Thirteenth Annual Milton Mollen Commitment to Excellence Award. This annual award is named in honor of former Presiding Justice Milton Mollen, to recognize the achievements and efforts of the employees of the Unified Court System within the Second Judicial Department who have demonstrated the highest level of dedication, integrity and professionalism, qualities that are synonymous with those exemplified by former Presiding Justice Milton Mollen.

The awards will be presented on Wednesday, January 24, 2024, at 1:00 p.m., at a formal ceremony to be held in the Courthouse of the Appellate Division for the Second Judicial Department, located at 45 Monroe Place, Brooklyn Heights, New York.

The ceremony will be presided over by Presiding Justice LaSalle and the Associate Justices of the Appellate Division, Second Judicial Department. Among those in attendance will be Hon. Joseph A. Zayas, Chief Administrative Judge of New York State Courts, Hon. Norman St. George, First Deputy Chief Administrative Judge of New York State Courts, Deputy Chief Administrative Judges Hon. Deborah A. Kaplan and Hon. James P. Murphy, as well as the Administrative Judges and District Executives for the judicial districts that comprise the Second Department, just to name a few. Many other retired Justices of the Second Judicial Department, along with several other dignitaries, will attend the special event.

The ceremony will feature special remarks by former Presiding Justice Mollen's son, Scott E. Mollen, a distinguished attorney.
